Club 3D announces the introduction of the new Nvidia GT240 Noiseless Edition card

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands - March 25, 2010 - Club 3D B.V. is the first to market the new Nvidia GT240 Noiseless Edition graphics card. This version is offered with 1GB GDDR3 memory and a two heat-pipe cooling design aimed at the HTPCs users with a mainstream budget.

The Club 3D Nvidia GT240 is powered by 96 Nvidia® Cuda™ cores that can vastly accelerate most applications, some as much as 50% faster than previous generation GPU's. Turn photos and home videos into masterpieces, view Adobe Flash 10.1 video in full screen HD, and play the latest games with fast frame rates and NVIDIA® PhysX® effects. Energize your multimedia with GeForce GT 240 graphics.
